Unless the rules provide otherwise, a decision of the Executive Committee shall be passed by a majority of the votes cast by the members present and voting.

At the request of a board of directors, the Executive Committee may, each director shall have one vote. Where there is an equality of votes on any question to be decided at a meeting of the Executive Committee, the chairman of the board of directors shall have a casting vote.

The directors shall appoint a secretary for the Executive Committee. If a director is unable to attend a meeting, he may appoint a person to act as his alternate director in his absence. The appointment of an alternate director shall be effected by notice in writing signed by the director making the appointment and delivered to the secretary.

The appointed director shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Executive Committee for his services as an alternate director. If a director ceases to be a director, his appointment as an alternate director shall terminate. An alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the Executive Committee and to attend and vote at any such meeting at which the director appointing him is not personally present and generally to perform all the functions of his director in his absence.

When a director is absent from Hong Kong, any question arising at a meeting of the Executive Committee may be decided at a board meeting of the Executive Committee. That director's decision may be made known to the board of directors by any means (including by telephone). Unless a director has a conflict of interest, his vote shall be counted and he shall be taken into account in determining whether a quorum is present.

The board of directors shall keep minutes of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Executive Committee.

Provided that the director concerned or his alternate director has been given notice of the meeting according to the articles of association of the Executive Committee, and provided that the quorum requirement is met, a meeting of the Executive Committee held in Hong Kong or elsewhere shall be valid without the need for confirmation.

The board of directors may, by resolution of directors, delegate any of its powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors. The directors may also delegate to any committee so formed the power to further delegate to sub-committees. Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the directors.

The directors shall be entitled to be paid their travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the Executive Committee or any committee of the Executive Committee, or in connection with the business of the Executive Committee or of such committee, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Executive Committee. Where any director is called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in the opinion of the board of directors for any of the purposes of the Executive Committee, the directors may arrange with such director for such special remuneration for such extra services or exertions as they may determine.

The directors shall keep, or cause to be kept, proper books of account with respect to all sums of money received and expended by the Executive Committee and the matters in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place, and all sales and purchases of goods by the Executive Committee, and the assets and liabilities of the Executive Committee. Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Executive Committee's affairs and to explain its transactions.

The directors shall, at the annual general meeting, lay before the Executive Committee a profit and loss account for the financial year ended on the date to which the Executive Committee's accounts are made up.

6. ake legal proceedings against the directors, officers and employees of the Corporation, as a result of any breach of their obligations under this Act.

The Corporation shall not engage in activities that are inconsistent with the purposes of the Corporation or the objects and powers set out in its articles of incorporation. The above-mentioned articles shall:

1. restrict the objects of the Corporation to those activities that are necessary for the operation of the Corporation;

2. restrict the objects of the Corporation to those activities that are necessary for the operation of a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation;

3. restrict the powers of the Corporation with respect to its management of the Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation; and

4. provide that the Corporation shall not amend its articles of incorporation to add any objects or powers that are inconsistent with the purposes of the Corporation.

A director or officer of the Corporation who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding

In addition, the Corporation shall not engage in activities that are inconsistent with the purposes of the Corporation.

(1) a resolution by the directors of the Corporation to engage in activities that the Corporation is prohibited from engaging in by the Financial Administration Act or the regulations made under that Act;

(2) a resolution by the directors of the Corporation that the Corporation acquire or hold shares in a company that the Corporation controls; and

(3) the appointment of an auditor under section 243 of this Act.

0

The corporation shall not amend its articles of incorporation or by-laws, or make any by-law, that is inconsistent with the purposes of the Corporation, or the objects and powers set out in its articles of incorporation, or that affects the rights or duties of the Corporation, its directors or officers.

For the purposes of this section, the making of a by-law includes the repeal of a by-law. The following provisions apply to by-laws:

1. a by-law comes into force on the day it is made;

2. a by-law ceases to have effect if it is not confirmed by the directors within one year after the day it is made.

During the period of liquidation, the CPA, as a result of its duties in handling the assets and liabilities of the estate, may become subject to certain duties and responsibilities described in the Agreement. Before the CPA takes any action, it must be directed by the Court, as provided in the Agreement.

In carrying out its duties, the CPA may disburse funds, if the liquidation proceeds are sufficient for the purpose, the amounts of the CPA's fees and disbursements incurred in carrying out its duties, as provided in the Petition for Success Fees and Costs, and the CPA's fees and costs incurred in connection with the Petition for Success Fees and Costs, as approved by the Court.

Once the Petition for Success Fees and Costs has been granted by the Court, the CPA will have the right to receive funds from the liquidation proceeds as provided in the Petition for Success Fees and Costs.

Following the completion of the liquidation, the CPA will file a report of the liquidation, the manner in which the liquidation proceeds were distributed, and any other matters required by the Court. The CPA will then file a motion for discharge, and upon the entry of an order discharging the CPA, the CPA will be relieved of any further duties.

The CPA will be entitled to receive reasonable fees for its services in handling the liquidation of the assets and liabilities of the estate, as approved by the Court.

Any dispute between the CPA and any party in connection with the liquidation proceedings will be resolved by the Court.

The CPA, as a result of its duties in handling the assets and liabilities of the estate, may become subject to certain duties and responsibilities described in the Agreement.

In the event of the termination of the CPA's duties, the CPA will be entitled to receive reasonable fees for its services in handling the liquidation of the assets and liabilities of the estate, as approved by the Court.

In the event of the termination of the CPA's duties, the CPA will be entitled to receive reasonable fees for its services in handling the liquidation of the assets and liabilities of the estate, as approved by the Court:

(1) After the termination of the CPA's duties, the CPA will be entitled to receive reasonable fees for its services in handling the liquidation of the assets and liabilities of the estate, as approved by the Court.

(2) The circumstances of the case and the change made by the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association;

(3) The Chairman's decision regarding the Annual General Meeting should be followed.

Article 10 of the Articles of Association, provides that the Chairman's decision regarding the Annual General Meeting, which pertains to the matters mentioned in the Chairman's decision regarding the Annual General Meeting, shall be published in the Official Gazette and in the Official Gazette. Article 10 of the Articles of Association shall be filed for the Annual General Meeting according to the Law.

A

The bylaws of the Association shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association regarding the Annual General Meeting and the Chairman's decision regarding the Annual General Meeting.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Annual General Meeting, at its discretion, may amend the Articles of Association, which are in accordance with the following principles:

(1) When a change of the Articles of Association pertains to the Annual General Meeting's
